Get involved and make change happen!

The United Nations in Geneva examines the UK Government every five years to check how well children and young people's human rights are being respected.

This is where you come in...

Visit the Get ready for Geneva website to:

- Have your say
- Tell decision-makers what it's really like
- Stir things up
- Find top tips to take action
- Take part in debates and surveys
- Push for change
- Get informed!

We're getting ready for Geneva – are you?
